

Happy Christmas from Geoff & Chris

God has been very good to us this year. Not only have we had the year of our lives, we now have the Christmas bonus of another winter in Edinburgh. We are house sitting again for our friends here and have rebooked our tickets to take us to Canberra in April. The last twelve months have been filled with writing, conference organising and being tourists. Along the way, we have house sat for friends in Edinburgh, Haarlem, Vancouver and Cromer. Many new friends have been made, more than 160 new birds have been spotted and two pairs of shoes worn out.

So, we are dreaming of yet another white Christmas. The three photos above are of our last winter here in Edinburgh.

We have maintained a website of our adventures. On it, you will find our monthly epistles, Geoff's blog, Chris's bird and animal lists and many photos. So, read all about it on www.geoffandchris.com.

We hope this greeting finds you well and full of hope. May the presence of Christ fill your home and all God's creation with peace and joy.

With our love,
Chris and Geoff.
